

Fun Fact: APA's 2022 President,
Dr. Frank Worrell
is a school psychologist!

Division 16 Membership Benefits:

- Notification of grant opportunities
- Awards opportunities
- Publication opportunities
- Free events for professional development
- Special membership pricing for continuing education and live events
- Resources for early career school psychologists:
 - Certification/licensure information
 - Careers in academia
 - Private practice
 - Job boards
 - Early career blog
 - Funding and awards

All this, PLUS access to two leading academic publications for continued learning and development:

- Journal: School Psychology
- Newsletter: The School Psychologist

Student Benefits:

- Leadership opportunities
- The "TEAM" Mentorship program
 - Division 16 is proud to announce the Transforming, Engaging, Achieving Mentoring (TEAM) Program. The overarching purpose of the TEAM Program is to create safe spaces for BIPOC mentors and mentees to engage in discussions of experiences impacting the mentee. The program pairs BIPOC students and early career professionals with more experienced BIPOC school psychology professionals.
- The Transforming, Engaging, Achieving Mentoring (TEAM) Program provides early career psychologists and students, especially those of color, with increased opportunities for collaboration and support
- Connect students and professionals who have common interests related to diversity,
- Give students the opportunity to interact (i.e., communicate, collaborate on research) with professionals/faculty outside of their program, and
- Develop a lasting professional relationship
- Funding, publication, and award opportunities
- Special content created just for student development

Division 16 Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion:

- School Psychology Unified Antiracism Statement and Call to Action
- Transforming, Engaging, Achieving Mentoring \(TEAM\) Program

The Division 16 Committee on Ethnic Minority Affairs (CEMA) is a subcommittee within American Psychological Association (APA) School Psychology Division. Our mission aligns with the broader mission of APA's CEMA with an emphasis on aspects of psychology that are related to ethnic minorities. Our more immediate goals include promoting the recruitment and retention of ethnic minorities in the field of school psychology. We aim to diversify the school psychology pipeline by:

- Developing and implementing programs, strategies, and resources to promote and cultivate leadership in racially and ethnically diverse graduate students in school psychology
- Developing and implementing programs, strategies, and resources to recruit and retain racially and ethnically diverse students into the field of school psychology

How can I support D16 CEMA?

D16 CEMA has launched a number of initiatives to work toward our subcommittee goals. If you are interested in contributing to one of these initiatives, please feel free to contact Tara Raines, D16 CEMA Chair.

Join Division 16 Today
No APA Membership Required!

JOIN NOW